

Old PTX-4 type receiver.

If you have to program a remote into this Note: I programme every button into it when you program just one button like most cheap receivers. So, you can never pick what button you want it to work on what channel as it's all in the programming or the remotes and the wiring.

